

Sharon Schamber

Sharon has a long history in textiles. She was designer and the master pattern maker for Deja Vu/Time & Eternity Fashions in Scottsdale, Arizona for over 20 years. After retiring from that business in 1994, she has devoted her energies to designing and making beautiful award winning quilts. Sharon was named the winner of Best of Show award at the 2005 Houston International Quilt Festival with her magnificent quilt "Scarlet Serenade". Her "Sedona Rose" quilt won Best of Show at the 2006 AQS Show in Paducah and her "Flower of Life" won Best of Show in 2007. Sharon is the first to win the top award two years in a row! Her "Spirit of Mother Earth" was chosen to receive Gammill's longarm machine quilting award and Viewer's Choice at the AQS 2008 Show and Best of Show award at the 2008 Houston International Quilt Festival. Sharon has recently been awarded the title of Master Quilter from the National Quilting Association.
