

Friendship Knot Quilter's Guild
July 19, 2010

The evening began at 6:00 PM with a workshop making Cancer Quilts. The work continued until 8:00 PM when Vice President, Ellen Simon called the regular meeting to order.

The hostess Cottage Group was thanked for the welcome and the especially the delicious treats.

The minutes of the last board meeting and the last regular meeting were approved by unanimous vote. Betty Seeman proposed the motions and Beverly Gross the seconds.

Ellen thanked the volunteers for their help with setting up the workshop. Jann Nohe, Dawn Moore, Karen Brennan, Susan Ott and the camera crew and reporters for the WEDU station.

The donation to All Faith's Food Bank for June was $29.00.

Cathy Washburn was thanked for organizing a very successful Quilt Camp. 20 quilters attended and all were very pleased with their UFO stack being reduced.

The next Board meeting will be held on August 4, 2010 at 7:00 PM at Karla's home.

The deadline for the newsletter is July 27th. A new editor is needed for the Newsletter as Carol Trice is no longer as to do it.

A new Kudos' article writer is needed. Pam Morris agreed to take on the job.

Cass Bowen reported that the total membership is 267, 1 new member, and 49 attending this meeting.

Cass then put on her Quilt Show "hat". The traditional quilt that has been made by Guild members was appraised at $2,000. The quilts are now insured so they can now travel to quilt stores to be displayed and hopefully sell raffle tickets.

The West Palm Beach World Quilt Show will be held in November. If FKQG members donate 40 White Glove hours our 2 Quilt Show raffle can be displayed. Susan Walker is looking into a bus for the 1 day trip. The Venice Quilt will be invited to join us.

Show and Tell was enjoyed.

Ellen announced that the Chemo Quilt have no deadline. This charity work will continue all year. The quilts will be delivered to Sarasota Memorial Hospital when several are turned in.

We are reminded of Betty Seeman's class on August 14th. The cost will be $25.00.

The September meeting will be a trunk show of the Hoffman Quilts.

The Color Challenge Quilt for this month is Triad or monochromatic.

Ellen announced that books and blogs will be available to members to meet our future teachers.

The August meeting will have Brenda Bunningham from Blank fabrics. All are encouraged to attend this interesting program.

The meeting was adjourned on motion by Betty Seeman with a second by Marcia Slocum at 8:40 PM.

Respectfully submitted
Beth Grindal