

Friendship Knot Quilters' Guild
Members Meeting
April 20, 2015

President Karen Clark called the meeting to order at the Bahia Vista Mennonite Church at 7:00 P.M. on April 20, 2015. She thanked the TAGS ("Tuesday Anything Goes") Cottage Group for hostessing the meeting tonight. Karen reminded everyone to check the table in the entry hall for quilt related news.

Minutes: They will be posted to the website and approved next month.

Treasurer's Report: Joy Abbott reported on the profit realized from the 2015 FKQG Quilt Show. Details about this may be seen in the Members Only section of the website.

Summer Programs: Mary Nissen has set up our summer schedule as follows: June: Sandy Brawner will give a lecture; July: Demo month: 4 teachers; August :Pillowcases for charity and ice cream social; September: 2016 program/class roll-out and sign ups; October: Stash sale.

Quilts for Cruisers: Cass reported the Police and Sherriff Dept. have given out several of the quilts our members have made and read a letter of appreciation from someone from the Police Dept expressing gratitude for our donation of these quilts used for children who have to be removed from homes in the case of domestic issues. The Board has decided to continue with this charity for the coming year.

Committee Reports:

Membership: Linda reported: 330 total membership, including 3 new members tonite, 3 renewals and 12 guests.

Class Registrar: Faith is now taking deposits for summer retreat at DaySprings.

Newsletter: Deadline for the next newsletter is April 24. Karla would like a volunteer to take over this position and she will help in the transition.

Library: Ellen described a couple of new books for the library. If members would like to suggest titles to her, she will be happy to consider them.

Habitat for Humanity: Table runners welcomed.

CONTINUED
FKQG

April 20, 2015
Page 2

New Members: The road trip scheduled for April 25 is open to everyone. Will be going to Deland and then visit shops on the way back to Sarasota. It will be a “car pool trip”. Any new member who did not receive an email about dinner and the road trip is asked to email Lynn at purpleprose@verizon.net.

Quilt Show 2017: Pat and Elva say: “Start working on quilts for the show!”

Old Business:

Three guild Challenge: Karla and Rose have details and will put on the website.

Bylaw Review Committee: Tina, Cass and Karen have volunteered to review the bylaws.

New Business:

Kathy Dotson and Linda Kirby are the co-chairs. They gave an entertaining introduction to all the fun that can be had at the Summer Retreat at DaySprings. Faith is now taking reservations and deposits.

Newtown Library Exhibit: 68 quilts have been hung and will be on display there for 5 weeks.

Shirley Wulf is looking to hire someone to help with t-shirt quilts.

Meeting adjourned at 7:35.

Elva introduced tonight speaker: Angela Walters from Kansas City, Missouri. She has a trunk show and teaches free motion quilting.

Show and Tell followed the lecture.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia Slocum,
Secretary